Program Definitions

ANCC has identified and defined the following three types of programs for eligibility in the Practice Transition Accreditation Program application process:

RN Residency: Planned, comprehensive program through which currently licensed registered nurses with less than 12 months of experience can acquire the knowledge, skills, and professional behaviors necessary to deliver quality care that meets standards of practice defined by a professional society or association or the applicant organization. The program must be at least 6 months in length, encompassing organizational orientation, practice-based experience, and supplemental activities to promote nursing professional development. All registered nurses (or international equivalent) who have graduated from an accredited school of nursing are eligible (associate degree, diploma, bachelor's, or master's degree).

RN Fellowship: Planned, comprehensive program through which currently licensed, registered nurses with 6 or more months of experience can acquire the knowledge, skills, and professional behaviors necessary to deliver quality care that meets standards of practice defined by a professional society or association or the applicant organization. The program may include organizational orientation and must include practice-based experience and supplemental activities to promote nursing professional development. All registered nurses (or international equivalent) who have graduated from an accredited school of nursing are eligible (associate degree, diploma, bachelor's degree, or master's degree).

APRN Fellowship: Planned, comprehensive program through which currently licensed and certified (or international equivalent) advanced practice registered nurses (APRNs) can acquire the knowledge, skills, and professional behaviors necessary to deliver quality care that meets standards of practice defined by a professional society or association or the applicant organization. The program may include organizational orientation and must include practice-based experience and supplemental activities to promote nursing professional development.

SECTION 4 : STATEMENT OF UNDERSTANDING

Insert your organization's name below, sign, and date electronically. Forms received without a signature incur a delay in processing which will cause a delay in the review of the accreditation application.

I attest, by my signature below, that I am duly authorized by: (insert name of Applicant Organization below)

(hereinafter referred to as Applicant Organization) to submit this application for program accreditation offered by the American Nurses Credentialing Center (ANCC) and to make the statements herein. On behalf of Applicant Organization, I have read the Practice Transition Accreditation Program (PTAP) eligibility requirements and criteria. I understand that Applicant Organization is subject to all eligibility requirements and criteria for accreditation as described in the current Practice Transition Accreditation Program Application Manual and any updates thereto. I understand that program accreditation depends on successfully meeting eligibility requirements and accreditation criteria and that continued accreditation is dependent upon continued compliance. If accredited, the name of Applicant Organization Residency/Fellowship program will be included in the official listing of ANCC accredited programs with permission.

On behalf of Applicant Organization, by my signature below, I authorize ANCC staff and the Commission on Accreditation to make whatever inquiries and investigations that they, in their sole discretion, deem necessary to obtain or verify information submitted with or necessary for review of this application.

On behalf of Applicant Organization, I expressly acknowledge and agree that information accumulated by ANCC through the accreditation process may be used for statistical, research, and evaluation purposes and that ANCC may enter into agreements to release anonymous and aggregate data to third parties. Otherwise, subject to the mailing list authorization, all information will be kept confidential and shall not be used for any other purposes without Applicant Organization's permission.

On behalf of Applicant Organization, I hereby certify that the information provided on and with this application is true, complete, and correct. I further attest, by my signature on behalf of Applicant Organization, that Applicant Organization will comply with all eligibility requirements and accreditation criteria throughout the entire accreditation period, including all reapplication periods for maintaining accreditation, and that Applicant Organization will notify ANCC promptly if, for any reason while this application is pending or during any accreditation period, Applicant Organization does not maintain compliance. I understand that any misstatement of material fact submitted on, with, or in furtherance of this application for program accreditation shall be sufficient cause for ANCC to deny, suspend, or terminate accreditation of Applicant Organization's residency/fellowship program and to take other appropriate action against Applicant Organization.
